

Interlocking dancing dogs

A quick example in creating an Escher-like tessellation based on rotational symmetry. Try different patterns to replace the two edges, and the other two are obtained by rotation. Before tessellating the plane be creative and draw something in your pattern.

Here is our pattern. Now fill the plane:

